Metals Australia raises funds to drill for uranium in Namibia

Metals Australia (ASX: MLS) has raised $500,000 through a placement of 50 million shares at $0.01, which will be allocated to ongoing exploration, such as the upcoming drilling program at its Mile 72 uranium prospect in Namibia.

In addition 50 million unlisted options are to be granted at $0.01, which are exercisable at $0.02 on or before the 31st August 2016.

MLS has confirmed alaskite drill targets at Mile 72 by on-ground assessment on high resolution geophysical targets.

The reverse circulation drilling program will cover 3000 to 5000 metres.

Importantly for the prospectivity of the area, the project is hosted within Namibia's alaskite province, which also hosts the Rossing and Husab uranium deposits.
